

Welcome to Kurtz Restaurant. Our family started the restaurant business in 1937; originally our family home, serving meals on the first level. This was long before fast food restaurants, country clubs and drive-ins. Kurtz's became a place to gather and dine. My parents, Merrill and Annette Kurtz, opened their home for the community while remaining very active in the business until their deaths in the 1980's. Several of my sisters and I participated in the continuation of services in the restaurant. Upon my parents' deaths, my children and grandchildren continue to help me prepare the Southern cuisine which our patrons have come to expect and enjoy. Skillet fried chicken, Kentucky country ham, homemade soups and casseroles are among some of the community favorites. But after four generations, the homemade cobblers, pies, biscuit pudding and skillet fried cornbread have become our signature. Our family has expanded services to accommodate your special occasions in our private dining rooms known as "Suga's", which once served as living quarters for "Suga" and "Daddy Kurtz", the names given by my children to their grandparents. We invite you to personally select and plan a menu to accommodate your family or corporate events.

Enjoy your meal,

Marilyn Kurtz Dick
